Day 1: Luxor temple, Karnak temple

Start your amazing 5-day MS Orchestra Nile Cruise from Luxor to Aswan. One of our professional tour leaders will be waiting for you at the Luxor International Airport holding a sign of Cairo Top Tours, and you will start your sightseeing tour which begins with.

The Temple of Luxor: This temple is dedicated to several gods in the Theban Triad, Amun-Ra, Mut, His wife and Khonsu, their son.

The Temple of Karnak: It is a vast area that consists of several temples built back to the 11th Dynasty, which is about 2134 BC.

After you are done with the excursions, you will enjoy having some lunch on board.

Alternatively, you may also enjoy the optional tour to the sound and light show that takes place at the Karnak Temple as well.

Later on, a dinner cruise with wonderful views of the Nile will be served.

Meals: Lunch, Dinner.

Day 2: Luxor attractions.

On the following day of the MS Orchestra Nile Cruise from Aswan to Luxor, a sumptuous breakfast will be served on board. Besides, after that, your Cairo Top Tours guide will introduce an activity that can be chosen: a hot air balloon ride over Luxor at dawn for amazing views over the city.

Let us assist you on your day filled with activities by presenting to you your first place to visit:

The Valley of Kings: This royal cemetery of New Kingdoms' pharaohs is located in the ancient city of Thebes, which is situated on the western bank of Luxor.

Hatshepsut Temple: This grand temple is located in insolvent West Bank Luxor and was constructed during the reign of Queen Hatshepsut, who referred to herself as Pharaoh, in memory of herself at Deir el-Bahari.

Colossi of Memnon: Large figures were built to guard the king's funeral temple and bear bas-reliefs and imagines of his mother, wife, and god Hapi. Alas, very little of the funerary temple actually exists today as do the Colossi.

You will bring your day to a close with a comfortable overnight stay on board this vessel.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner.

Day 3 : sail to Edfu and Kom Ombo

Early on the third day of the Nile cruise in the Miss Sara Nile cruise from Luxor to Aswan, you will have a hearty breakfast before the boat sails for Edfu where you will visit the first site in the itinerary:

Edfu Temple: The temple of Edfu is the second largest after Karnak Temple, located in Edfu on the west side of the Nile in upper Egypt.

Kom Ombo Temple: This temple presents the worship of several deities namely Sobek; the crocodile god and Horus the falcon god. The Ptolemies built the temple. The structure has two temples that are placed side by side and incorporate all the elements of ancient Egyptian temple building.

Afterwards, you'll have lunch in Edfu and then you'll proceed to Aswan, the last destination.

Meals: Breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 4: sail to Aswan

Your trip aboard the MS Orchestra Nile Cruise, day five, which is from Luxor to Aswan will begin by beautiful breakfast. After that, you will proceed to the first place of interest.

- Aswan High Dam: A project aimed at diverting the river and the accompanying land reclamation works, has been in place since 1953, the year a commission tasked with designing the dam was set up. By December 1954, under the direction of engineer Musa Arafa and Dr. Hassan Zaki, the final drawings of the project were completed with the help of various foreign contracting firms.

- Philae Temple: This temple bound to the cult of Isis was settled on the island of Philae, but it was later swallowed by the water and transported to Agilika, close to 500 meters away.

After which you will enjoy your last night on board the cruise ship.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner.

Day 5: the last day

On the final day of the MS Orchestra Nile Cruise from Luxor to Aswan, after enjoying breakfast, you'll be transferred to Aswan International Airport, marking the end of our services and your luxurious Nile cruise experience.
