Cairo stopover tours | Transit Trip with stopover in Cairo

A certified tour leader from Cairo Top Tours will meet you inside the airport terminal, holding a sign with your name for easy recognition. They will assist you with all the details at Cairo International Airport to start your transit tour with a layover in Cairo. You'll be transferred to embark on our Giza day tours, where you'll visit the only surviving monument of the ancient Seven Wonders of the World. Begin your journey at the Giza Pyramids, starting with the Pyramid of Cheops, built by the second Pharaoh of the Fourth Dynasty of the Old Kingdom and son of Senefru. Learn fascinating insights into how and why pyramids were constructed. Explore the adjacent pyramids, including those of Khafra (Chephren) and the granite-cased pyramid of the last Pharaoh of the dynasty, Menkuare (Mycerinus). You'll also see the enigmatic Sphinx and the Valley Temple, built for the mummification rituals of the kings.

Next, immerse yourself in the mesmerizing treasures of the Egyptian Museum, renowned for its unique collection of Egyptian antiquities spanning the Pharaonic and Greco-Roman eras. Discover over 120,000 masterpieces, including statues of Ramses II, Amenhotep III, Thutmose III, and other renowned rulers of ancient Egypt, alongside the legendary golden treasures of Tutankhamun. The museum houses artifacts unearthed from various tombs, preserved under desert sands for over 3,500 years until their discovery and relocation to Cairo for public display.

Afterward, enjoy a delightful lunch at a local restaurant. If time permits before your flight, explore our Islamic Cairo trips. Marvel at the domes and minarets of medieval mosques and stroll along the ancient stone pathways of El Moez Street, dating back to the 10th century. Conclude your Cairo walking tour with a refreshing drink at Fishawy, one of Khan El Khalili's oldest cafes.

At the end of your Cairo day trip from Cairo International Airport, our team will ensure your timely transfer back to the airport for your onward journey.
