You'll have the opportunity to marvel at Egypt's most famous pyramids: the Great Pyramid of King Khufu (Cheops), the pyramid of King Khafra (Chephren), and the pyramid of King Menkaure (Mycerinus) in the Giza Necropolis, all dating back to the Old Kingdom.

Next, explore the Great Sphinx and the Valley Temple, built by King Chephren for the preservation of his body. Capture stunning photos from the Giza Scenic Plateau and opt for a 30-minute camel riding tour for an additional fee of 200 Egyptian pounds.

After a delicious lunch, continue your journey to Saqqara to visit the Step Pyramid of King Djoser, the oldest stone monument created by humans, and delve into the largest archaeological site in Egypt. Enjoy panoramic views of the Dahshur pyramids, including the Bent Pyramid and Red Pyramid constructed by King Snefru, father of King Khufu. Explore the pyramid of Teti and Saqqara's noble tombs without needing an extra ticket, gaining insights into ancient Egyptian daily life.

Conclude your tour in the historic city of Memphis, just 20 minutes from Saqqara, where you'll explore an open-air museum filled with ancient relics and statues from the former capital of the pharaohs.
