Cairo Countryside Trip

Discover the charm of the Egyptian countryside with our Cairo Day Tours and immerse yourself in the local community.

Experience the people's daily lives by visiting their homes, savoring organic meals, and participating in local weddings and funerals. You can explore the countryside on a donkey or bicycle, try your hand at farming, take cooking lessons, and enjoy activities like walking or jogging in Al Fayoum. Engage with the culture by reading, writing, and listening to traditional Arabic music and costumes inspired by ancient Egypt.

Join us for a unique Cairo Day Tour to fully embrace the authentic Egyptian lifestyle, where enjoying local mint tea and smoking water pipes (hookahs) is a cherished tradition.

As part of our Egypt Day Tours, a trip to the Egyptian countryside offers an exciting opportunity to connect with local people and relish the beauty of rural Egypt's nature and culture.

Egyptian Countryside Tour

Your adventure in the Egyptian countryside, covering Dahshur and El Monofia, will begin when your licensed tour guide from Cairo Top Tours meets you at your hotel. Kick off your tour with a light breakfast paired with a refreshing cup of mint charcoal tea. Throughout the day, you'll have the chance to engage with residents, learn about their agricultural practices, and even get hands-on if you wish.

A delicious lunch will be served, allowing you to assist with meal preparations while enjoying mint tea, fresh juice, cookies, or cane sugar.

Your knowledgeable guide will accompany you and your new friends from the village as you stroll along the man-made canals that irrigate the land, a technique inherited from ancient Egyptians. You'll also visit a cheese factory and a barnyard where various native farm animals are raised, including water buffaloes, camels, goats, sheep, and chickens. For some fun, you can choose to ride a donkey or swing from a tree. To top off your day, relax in a lovely garden and enjoy the picturesque sunset.

This unique tour offers a glimpse into the daily lives and professions of people in a typical Egyptian village. Your guide will highlight the most fascinating spots, introducing you to the friendly locals and helping you communicate with them. Be ready to create unforgettable memories as you explore the charming countryside! Your tour will conclude with a return to your hotel in Cairo.
