Day tour To Giza pyramids

Your private tour guide will get you up from your hotel and transport you to the first stop of your day tour to the Giza Pyramids in an air-conditioned vehicle.

The Giza Pyramids:

The pyramids' remoteness is a riddle that perplexes the globe, despite the fact that most scientific attempts to uncover how the ancient Egyptians created this timeless miracle have failed, the topic is not without certain attempts at interpretation, which have been classified as superstitions.

When your trip ends at the three recognized pyramids, you will embark on a quad bike pyramids safari before visiting.

Dahshure:

Information on Dahshur's Red Pyramid. The Red Pyramid is a short distance from Saqqara and was built in Dahshur for Pharaoh Sneferu, Khufu's father. It is the first "real" pyramid and has the second largest base of any Egyptian pyramid.

Then you'll have lunch at an excellent restaurant with Egyptian-inspired cuisine. Then we'll take you back to your drop-off spot, where we'll conclude our service.
