Tour to Baron Empain Palace and Abdeen Palace

Enjoy an enlightening Cairo Day Tour to Baron Empain Palace and Abdeen Palace from our extensive range of Cairo Day Trips. Discover Baron Empain's Palace, a residence built in a distinctive South Asian architectural style, designed by the French architect Alexander Marcel, a member of the renowned French Institute. The palace is a masterpiece of Hindu-style architecture commissioned by Baron Empain himself.

Begin your journey with Cairo Top Tours' representative, who will transfer you to experience one of the most enriching Cairo Trips. You'll get a detailed introduction to Egypt's history, spanning all the significant epochs, as you head toward Abdeen Palace. Here, you'll witness the classical art and architecture from the Ottoman period, which dominated Egypt for nearly a century. The palace, a symbol of power during Ottoman rule from 1872 to 1952, holds great historical significance, having witnessed many key events that shaped modern Egypt.

Take a break for lunch if desired, then proceed to Abdeen Palace, where Egypt was governed under the Ottoman Empire. The palace is not only a treasure of Ottoman-era architecture but also a reminder of the country's political transformation during the 1952 revolution led by the Free Officers, which ended over 1,400 years of foreign rule since the time of Alexander the Great.

After the tour, you will be transferred back to your hotel or any preferred drop-off location, concluding your Cairo Day Tour with lasting memories.
