Tanoura Dance in Cairo

The Tanoura dance, often referred to as Sufi whirling, is a captivating dance rooted in Egypt's rich cultural heritage and connected to the Sufi branch of Islam. This mesmerizing and contemplative dance is performed by Sufi dervishes and is a must-see cultural experience in Cairo.

One of the most renowned groups performing this dance is the "Al Tanoura Heritage Band." Established in February 1988, this band has become a significant part of Egyptian folklore. The band performs with various traditional musical instruments such as the oboe, drum, and Rababa, creating a unique and enchanting atmosphere. With a roster of 50 members, the Al Tanoura Heritage Band has participated in numerous national and international events, including cultural exchange programs and major international festivals.

For those looking to explore Cairo, Tanoura dance is just one of the many cultural experiences you shouldn't miss. Our Cairo day tours offer a variety of options to see the best of what this incredible city has to offer. Besides witnessing the Tanoura dance, you can explore other fascinating sites like Saqqara, Memphis, and Old Cairo.
