Memphis Ancient City Tour

Discover the ancient capital of Egypt on this Cairo half-day tour to Memphis, once the heart of the Egyptian Empire and now an archaeological treasure trove. While Cairo stands as Egypt's modern capital, Memphis—located in what is now Mit-Rahina—was the largest and most significant capital in the country's history. On this tour, you'll delve into Egypt's fascinating past, exploring the open-air museum filled with a rich collection of artifacts, including the impressive remains of the colossal statue of King Ramses II.

Founded by King Narmer, also known as Menes, in 3200 B.C., Memphis served as the capital during the height of the ancient Egyptian Empire, particularly under the 3rd and 6th dynasties. This sacred city was dedicated to the worship of the god Ptah, and its influence spanned centuries. Join us on this immersive tour to uncover the secrets of Memphis and its role in Egypt's storied history. Don't miss the chance to explore more Cairo Half Day Tours and Egypt Day Tours with our extensive selection of Cairo Top Tours!

Cairo Half Day Tour to Memphis City

Our Cairo Top Tours Egyptologist guide will pick you up from the hotel lobby in Cairo or Giza to enjoy the Cairo half-day tours to Memphis city; it is the oldest established capital in the history of Egypt and the history of mankind. Memphis is situated in flat terrain in the general region of the delta, the interface between Upper and Lower Egypt, 25 km from Ras Delta, south-central Cairo, and 35 km south-central Cairo on the western bank of the Nile. You will start by going to the geographical location of the old city of Memphis, which was a city and an administrative hub of the large kingdom of upper and lower Egypt since the pre-dynastic period, moving to the old kingdom also known as the Pyramids era, followed by the middle kingdom.

The grand open-air museum gains a visit, where you will be able to observe grand statues and artifacts of the early era some of which are the second largest among all the sphinxes in Egypt, the alabaster sphinx, and the statues of the Great King Ramses II. Carry on with your Cairo Day Tours and move into the part to view the massive statue of Ramses II that resembles a broken leg and how it has been designed in such a superb manner to symbolize the power and grandeur of art in that period over the new laser tools. You will have a rich experience in one of the papyri-authorized institutes to know how ancient Egyptians fashioned writing paper from the papyrus plant reeds in the earliest historical moment of writing papers. That is it for this incredible Day Tour to Memphis from Cairo, your tour guide will drop you back to your hotel or any other drop-off point of your preference.
