Luxor East Bank tour - Banana Island day pass

At the start of the day, your tour guide will lead you to the first location once you are picked up from your hotel with a high-end air conditioner.

Banana Island:

For both Egyptian and foreign tourists, "Banana Island" on the western mainland's banks of the Nile River is a unique island created by the alluring natural world with a few touches from the Luxorites. It symbolizes a kingdom of magic, peace, and mental tranquility.

Temple of Luxor:

Temple of Luxor Known as Old Thebes, this extensive complex of ancient Egyptian temples is situated in the city of Luxor on the east bank of the Nile.

Temple of Karnak:

Abit Rust, which translates to "the most prestigious and reverent place," is the ancient Egyptian term for Karnak, which means "the fortified city." The most significant religious complex in ancient Egypt is located in Thebes, a tiny Egyptian city on the eastern bank of the Nile in the ancient city of Luxor.

After that, you'll be taken to the drop-off spot where we initially met you.
