Day Trip to Giza Pyramids and Saqqara from Alexandria Port

When your cruise arrives at Alexandria Port, our experienced tour leader will be there to greet you and ensure a smooth start to your journey.

Your exciting day trip to the Giza Pyramids and Saqqara begins with a scenic drive from Alexandria. First, explore the iconic Great Pyramid of Cheops, where your guide will explain its construction and historical significance. Next, visit the Pyramid of King Chephren, famous for its adjacent Sphinx, and the Pyramid of King Mycerinus, the last of the Giza pyramids, before enjoying a camel ride.

Your guide will then take you to see the colossal Sphinx, featuring a lion's body and a king's head, and the Valley Temple, where Pharaohs were once mummified. After a delightful traditional lunch, continue to Saqqara to explore the Step Pyramid of King Djoser, one of Egypt's oldest pyramids. In Saqqara, you'll also visit a Noble's tomb and the Pyramid of Teti, renowned for its stunning burial chamber.

At the end of your tour, you'll be returned to Alexandria Port by our dedicated team.
