Giza

The Giza Pyramids are one of the Seven Wonders of the World. You should not miss the opportunity to see the pyramids and the Sphinx. This tour to Egypt's Giza Pyramids, Memphis, and Saqqara, including a visit to the Papyrus Institute, highlights the country's history and culture while visiting prominent landmarks.

The Giza pyramids are among the most recognised structures in the world, and for good cause. These huge structures were created over 4,500 years ago and still standing today. They are very amazing to see. The Memphis area is home to many ancient Egyptian ruins, notably Ramses II's famed temple.

An excellent location to learn about Egyptian history and see some of the most impressive ancient architecture. Saqqara is home to the world's oldest known pyramid, the Step Pyramid of Djoser. This amazing structure was built over 4,700 years ago and is an incredible sight to see. The Papyrus Institute is a great place to learn about the history of this important plant. Papyrus was used for many things in ancient Egypt, including writing and paper.

You may also make your own papyrus paper here! This tour allows you to explore some of Egypt's most iconic sights while also learning about the country's rich history and culture. We hope you enjoy one of our Egyptian luxury trips!

Itinerary

Giza pyramids, Memphis, and Saqqara tour with a visit to the papyrus institute

Our expert tour leader will meet you at Alexandria port and accompany you to Cairo in an air-conditioned vehicle.

When we arrive, we will be taken to the Giza Pyramids, which are among the most recognizable landmarks in the world. Your educated Egyptologist guide will present an intriguing overview of each of the three pyramids—Cheops, Khafre, and Menakaura—from your perspective. This trip will be an unforgettable experience for all participants.

After visiting the ancient pyramids, you will proceed to the plateau to photograph the three pyramids emerging from the sand, with the Cairo skyline in the background. Following a brief excursion to the city side of the plateau, you may stand at the foot of the Sphinx, Egypt's enigmatic icon for thousands of years.

The Memphis and Saqqara tour is an excellent way to explore two of Egypt's most prominent archaeological sites up close while also learning about the rich history of Egyptian civilization.

Your journey to Memphis will provide you with insight into Egypt's ancient civilisation, as well as the stunning ruins of Pharaoh Ramses II's palace. You will also be able to see the Temple of Ptah, which was once one of Egypt's most prominent temples.

Next, you'll travel to Saqqara to witness the world's first known pyramid. The Djoser Step Pyramid is an incredible structure, and the tour will teach you everything you need to know about its construction and history. You'll also have the opportunity to visit the tomb of the great pharaoh, Tutankhamun, which is one of the most famous archaeological sites in the world.

After seeing Saqqara, you will visit the Papyrus Institute to learn about the ancient skill of papermaking. You'll also get to examine some of the amazing papyrus scrolls that have been kept for generations.

A trip to the Giza pyramids, Memphis, and Saqqara can provide insight into ancient Egyptian history and culture. You'll visit some of the world's most famous archaeological sites and learn about the remarkable civilization that once existed here.
