Day 1: Cairo - Alamein - Siwa Tour

Your exciting Egypt Desert Safari to Siwa Oasis begins with an early morning pickup from your hotel in Cairo by a professional tour leader from Cairo Top Tours. The journey starts at 6:00 AM as you head out to the historic El Alamein region.

At El Alamein, you'll visit the Commonwealth War Cemeteries, where the Commonwealth War Graves Commission is responsible for maintaining the final resting places of the men and women who served and sacrificed their lives in the armed forces of Commonwealth nations during World War II. You'll have the opportunity to explore the site of the famous battle and visit the World War Museum.

After your visit to El Alamein, you'll continue your drive to the beautiful bay of Marsa Matrouh on Egypt's North Coast. Here, you'll enjoy a delicious seafood lunch before continuing your journey to the remote and enchanting Siwa Oasis, which is approximately a 6-hour drive from El Alamein.

Upon arrival in Siwa, you'll have the chance to refresh yourself with a swim in a hot water spring before being transferred to your hotel, where you'll be staying in a beautiful eco-lodge for the night.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch

This first day of your Siwa Oasis Adventure from Cairo promises to be a captivating mix of history, natural beauty, and the anticipation of the more remote and mysterious landscapes that await you in the days to come.

Day 2: Siwa Sightseeing Tour

After a nourishing breakfast, you'll continue your exploration of the Siwa Oasis, starting with a visit to the ruins of the old town of Siwa, known as Shali. This ancient settlement has been partially melted down over time, creating a captivating and historically significant site for you to discover.

Next, you'll transfer to the ancient village of Aghurmi to visit the impressive Temple of Alexander the Great, also known as the Temple of the Oracle. This ancient structure dates back to the 26th dynasty, offering a glimpse into Siwa's rich and layered history.

Your tour will then take you to the Temple of Amun Ra at Um Ubeyda, which was built to honor the triad of Amun. This will be a chance to delve deeper into the religious and cultural significance of the region.

To further immerse yourself in the unique Siwan heritage, you'll visit the Siwa House Museum, where you'll have the opportunity to learn about the fascinating culture and traditions of the Bedouin tribes that call this oasis home. Afterwards, you'll enjoy a delicious lunch at the popular Abdo restaurant, overlooking the captivating Shali Fortress.

In the afternoon, you'll have the chance to relax and rejuvenate at the Cleopatra Spring, also known as Ein Guba. Here, you can take a refreshing swim and dip in the sparkling natural waters. As the day draws to a close, you'll be transferred to Fitnas Island to witness a truly breathtaking sunset.

Your day will conclude with an overnight stay in Siwa.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch

This second day of the Siwa Oasis Desert Safari adventure promises to be a wonderful blend of historical exploration, cultural immersion, and the opportunity to bask in the natural beauty and tranquility of this remarkable oasis.

Day 3: Shiata - Great Sand Sea - Bir Wahed Tour

Your day begins with a nourishing organic breakfast at your eco-lodge accommodation in Siwa. After fueling up, you'll embark on an incredible journey into the Great Sand Sea, a vast and captivating desert landscape.

Your first stop will be the Maraki village, where you'll have the opportunity to visit a unique archaeological site at the base of the great Siwa Mountain. Here, you'll have the chance to see the first-ever discovered human footprint, a remarkable connection to the distant past.

Continuing your safari tour, you'll explore the stunning dunes of the Siwa Oasis, eventually arriving at a fossilized coral reef area that dates back to the Cambrian age. This geological wonder is a testament to the ever-changing nature of this remarkable region.

Next, you'll make your way to a beautiful desert lake, where you can enjoy the serene surroundings. This is a prime spot to watch the graceful flamingo birds, and you'll also have the chance to take a refreshing swim in the cool waters of the lake.

Afterwards, you'll be treated to the thrilling experience of sandboarding. While not as fast as snowboarding, with the right waxing techniques, you can shoot down the massive dunes, providing an adrenaline-filled adventure.

Following your sandboarding exploits, you'll have the opportunity to unwind and rejuvenate in the hot springs of Bir Wahid, where the 40-degree Celsius waters will soothe your muscles and relax your body.

As the day draws to a close, you'll witness a breathtaking sunset over the Great Sand Sea, sipping on traditional Bedouin tea and reflecting on the wonders you've experienced.

Your day will conclude with an overnight stay in Siwa.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 4: Siwa Oasis

After a hearty breakfast at your eco-lodge accommodation, you'll continue your exploration of the Siwa Oasis by visiting the fascinating rock-cut tombs in the Mountain of the Dead (Jabal El Mawta). Here, you'll have the opportunity to see the tombs of the rulers of Siwa Oasis from the 26th dynasty, including the tombs of Si Amon and the Crocodile Tomb.

Following your visit to the ancient tombs, you'll travel to the Bedouin village of Abu Ali, where you'll have the chance to immerse yourself in the traditional Bedouin lifestyle. You'll get to see the village's one-class school and other intriguing aspects of their daily lives.

Your tour will then take you to Dakroul Mountain, where the Siwi people celebrate the annual Tourism Festival of El Syaha during the first full moon of October. This will be a unique opportunity to witness the vibrant cultural traditions of the local community.

After you visit Dakroul Mountain, you'll return to your hotel in Siwa for the night.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch

This fourth day of the Siwa Oasis Adventure from Cairo promises to be a captivating exploration of the region's rich history, cultural heritage, and the enduring traditions of the Bedouin people. From the ancient rock-cut tombs to the lively Bedouin village and the annual festival, this day will provide you with a deeper understanding and appreciation for the remarkable Siwa Oasis.

Day 5: Return to Cairo

On the last day of your Siwa Oasis adventure, you'll start your day with a hearty breakfast at your hotel. After fueling up, you'll begin the journey back to Cairo, accompanied by your Egyptologist guide.

The drive back to the capital city will allow you to reflect on the incredible experiences and discoveries you've made during your time in the Siwa Oasis. From the ancient ruins and Bedouin villages to the stunning desert landscapes, this trip has undoubtedly left a lasting impression.

As your Siwa Oasis Desert Safari trip from Cairo comes to an end, we hope that you have thoroughly enjoyed this incredible adventure. The opportunity to immerse yourself in the mysteries and wonders of this remote and captivating oasis is a truly unique and unforgettable experience.

With your Egyptologist guide by your side, you've been able to delve deeper into the rich history and cultural heritage of this remarkable region, creating memories that will stay with you long after your return to Cairo.
