Day 3: Egyptian Museum - Coptic and Islamic Cairo

Cairo Top Tours' expert guide will pick you up from your hotel to begin your combined Egyptian Museum and Coptic Cairo tour. Your first stop is the renowned Museum of Egyptian Antiquities, where you will embark on a fascinating journey through the vast history of ancient Egypt. The museum houses over 160,000 artifacts, including the magnificent treasures of King Tutankhamun—one of the most significant discoveries in Egyptology. Your Egyptologist guide will walk you through the highlights of the collection, including the breathtaking gold and jewelry found in Tutankhamun's tomb, which had been buried under the sands for more than 3,000 years before being unearthed in 1922.

Next, your guide will take you to Old Cairo, where you will visit the Citadel of Salah El Din. This iconic fortress, once the seat of Egypt's government until the reign of King Farouk, offers stunning views of the city. Inside the citadel, you'll tour the impressive Alabaster Mosque of Mohamed Ali, a beautiful example of Ottoman architecture modeled after the Blue Mosque in Istanbul.

After exploring the citadel, you'll enjoy a delicious lunch at a quality restaurant before continuing your tour in Coptic Cairo. You will visit the ancient Roman fortress of Babylon and the famous Hanging Church, a striking religious landmark built above the Roman gate towers. You'll also visit St. Sergius Church, also known as the Cavern Church, where the Holy Family is believed to have taken refuge during their time in Egypt. Here, you'll see the well from which they drank. The tour continues with a visit to the Ben Ezra Synagogue, a site rich in tradition, believed to be near the location where Moses was discovered as a baby.

Finally, you will explore Islamic Cairo, strolling through the medieval streets lined with historical relics, including mosques, madrasas, and ancient city gates. Your journey ends in the heart of Khan El Khalili Bazaar, where you can sip tea at Fishway Cafe, the oldest cafe in Cairo.
