Experience the best Egypt offers with our Egypt 7-Day Itinerary, one of the many unique options available in our Egypt travel packages. This carefully crafted itinerary covers the most iconic sites in Cairo and beyond, ensuring a memorable journey through Egypt's fascinating history.

Begin your adventure with a tour of the Giza Pyramids, built over 4,500 years ago by the great pharaohs of ancient Egypt. No trip to Cairo would be complete without seeing these awe-inspiring structures, which have become one of the top tourist attractions in Egypt. You'll also visit the Great Sphinx, an iconic and mysterious monument, and explore the Saqqara Necropolis, home to Egypt's oldest stone pyramid, built for King Djoser during the 3rd Dynasty. Delve into the history of Memphis, the ancient capital of Egypt's Old Kingdom, where you'll see more impressive relics from Egypt's past.

Your journey continues to Luxor, a city that boasts nearly one-third of the world's monuments. Luxor is a treasure trove of ancient wonders, including the Valley of the Kings, where you'll explore the tombs of Egypt's ancient rulers. Visit the magnificent Kom Ombo and Edfu Temples along the Nile River, each rich with history and architectural beauty.

Day 1: Arrival Cairo

Upon arrival at Cairo International Airport, a Cairo Top Tours representative will be there to greet you, holding a signboard with your name for easy recognition. They will assist you through the airport formalities and review your Egypt 7 Day Itinerary with you, ensuring you're prepared for the exciting journey ahead.

Your adventure begins right away with a visit to the world-renowned Step Pyramid of King Djoser in Saqqara, the oldest known stone structure in the world. Built by the brilliant architect Imhotep, this pyramid marks a significant development in ancient Egyptian architecture. As you explore Saqqara, located about 27 km southwest of Cairo, you'll also have the chance to visit the Mastaba Tombs of the Nobles, tracing the evolution of burial practices throughout ancient Egyptian history.

After a fascinating morning, you'll enjoy a delicious lunch at a charming local restaurant, followed by a visit to the ancient capital of Memphis, Egypt's Old Kingdom capital. In Memphis, you'll witness the grandeur of the Colossal Statue of Ramses II and the impressive Alabaster Sphinx, the second-largest sphinx in Egypt after the Great Sphinx of Giza. Memphis was founded by King Menes, who unified Upper and Lower Egypt over 5,000 years ago, marking the beginning of Egypt's dynastic history.

After a full day of exploration, you will be transferred to your hotel in Cairo for check-in and a relaxing evening.

Overnight in Cairo hotel.

Day 2: Cairo Sightseeing

Start your day with a delicious breakfast at your hotel before embarking on a tour of Coptic Cairo. Your first stop will be the Roman Fortress of Babylon, built by Emperor Trajan nearly 2,000 years ago. Explore this ancient site, which once protected the area from invaders. Next, visit the iconic Hanging Church, a beautiful Coptic Christian church constructed in the 3rd century, suspended above the gate of the fortress. You'll also visit the Church of St. Sergius, a significant religious site where the Holy Family is believed to have stayed during their flight to Egypt.

Your tour of Coptic Cairo concludes with a visit to the historic Ben Ezra Synagogue, the oldest synagogue in the region, which holds a unique place in the area's religious and cultural history.

Afterward, you'll visit the Egyptian Museum, home to the world's largest collection of Egyptian artifacts. Here, you'll marvel at treasures such as the gold and silver items of King Tutankhamen, including his famous golden mask and burial treasures, among countless other antiquities.

Enjoy a delightful lunch at a local restaurant before continuing to the Citadel of Saladin, one of Cairo's most impressive medieval fortifications. Here, you'll explore the majestic Mosque of Mohamed Ali, often referred to as the "Alabaster Mosque" due to its stunning white exterior. From the Citadel, take in panoramic views of Islamic Cairo, and spot modern landmarks such as the Cairo Tower and the television building.

To complete your day, you'll head to Khan El Khalili, Cairo's oldest and most vibrant bazaar. Wander through the bustling streets, shop for unique souvenirs, and soak in the atmosphere of this historic market.

At the end of your Cairo Day Tour, you'll be transferred back to your hotel for a restful overnight stay.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 3: Cairo to Luxor

After check-out from your Cairo hotel, your Egypt Travel Package continues with a seamless transfer to Cairo Airport, where you'll catch your flight to Luxor. Upon arrival, your driver and guide will be waiting to start your Luxor day tour.

Your first destination is the West Bank of Luxor, where you will explore the breathtaking Valley of the Kings, home to the ancient tombs of pharaohs and rulers. Admire the colorful and intricately decorated tombs, including those of iconic rulers like Tutankhamun, as you learn about their significance in ancient Egyptian history.

Next, you will visit the stunning Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, also known as the Temple of Deir El Bahari. This impressive structure, dedicated to one of Egypt's most famous female rulers, stands as a testament to her reign and legacy.

Your final stop on the West Bank is the Colossi of Memnon, two massive stone statues that have stood guard over Luxor for millennia.

After a delightful lunch at a Nile-view restaurant, you'll continue your journey to the East Bank of Luxor. Here, you'll visit the sprawling Karnak Temple Complex, the largest religious structure ever built, with its grand pillars, statues, and sacred lakes. End your day with a visit to the Luxor Temple, beautifully illuminated in the evening, where the past comes to life amidst the towering columns and ancient inscriptions.

After a full day of exploring Luxor's wonders, you will retire for the night at your Luxor hotel.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 4: Edfu & Kom Ombo Temple

Start your day with a delicious breakfast at the hotel's main restaurant before setting off on your next adventure. Your tour begins with a visit to the impressive Temple of Edfu, dedicated to the ancient Egyptian god Horus. As one of the best-preserved temples in Egypt, Edfu Temple offers a remarkable glimpse into ancient Egyptian religion and architecture.

After your visit, your driver will take you north along the Nile River, where you can enjoy the scenic beauty of the lush green banks contrasted with the surrounding desert landscape. Your next stop will be the Temple of Kom Ombo, uniquely situated on elevated ground with stunning views of the Nile. This fascinating temple has a dual dedication to the crocodile-headed god Sobek, symbolizing fertility and creation, and the falcon-headed god Haroeris (Horus), known as the protector of Egypt. The temple's double entrance and symmetrical layout make it a captivating site to explore.

After your visit, you will continue your journey to Aswan, where your representative will assist you with check-in at your hotel.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 5: Aswan Day Tour

After enjoying a delightful breakfast, your certified Cairo Top Tours guide will accompany you on an exciting day of Aswan sightseeing. The first stop on your tour will be the impressive Aswan High Dam, a modern engineering marvel constructed to control the Nile River's flooding, ensuring water is stored for irrigation and hydroelectric power generation. The dam has played a crucial role in Egypt's agricultural development and energy production.

Next, you'll visit the Philae Temple, dedicated to the goddess Isis. Located on Agilkia Island, this stunning temple complex was relocated during the construction of the High Dam to preserve it from the rising waters of Lake Nasser. Philae Temple is one of Egypt's most beautiful and well-preserved ancient structures, and its intricate carvings and serene setting make it a must-see attraction.

After the tour, you will be transferred back to your hotel for a relaxing evening in Aswan.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 6: Back to Cairo

After enjoying breakfast at your hotel, your tour leader will escort you to Aswan Airport for your flight back to Cairo. Upon your arrival, you will meet your guide at Cairo Airport to embark on an unforgettable Cairo Day Trip to explore the legendary Giza Pyramids.

Your first stop will be the Great Pyramid of Cheops, which dates back 4,500 years, followed by the Pyramid of Chephren, built 20 years later, and finally, the Pyramid of Mycerinus. These monumental structures were built by the pharaohs to serve as their passage to the afterlife, reflecting the ancient belief in life after death.

Next, you'll marvel at the iconic Great Sphinx and visit the Valley Temple, constructed from a blend of limestone, granite, and alabaster. The Sphinx, with its lion's body and human head, was built to guard the pyramids, adding to the mystical aura of the Giza plateau.

After your tour, you will be transferred to your hotel in Cairo, where your guide will assist with check-in.
