Day 2: Giza Pyramids/ Egyptian Museum/ Coptic Cairo Tour

The tour starts with breakfast at the hotel and then is joined by an appointed authorized tour guide. Next, the tour proceeds to the Giza Pyramids where you will visit such of the Pyramid which belongs to King Cheops, the pyramid was built 4500 years back, during the golden age. The tour moves on to the higher grounds where visitors gets to view the second pyramid for the King Chephren as well as the pyramid of the king Mycerinus. It goes on with a camel riding tour and the Valley Temple where the process of mummification of the king went through. Also seen is the Great Sphinx which is a mythical figure having the head of a man on the body of a lion which is understood to represent power and intelligence.

The next stage of the tour is to visit the Egyptian Museum in Cairo where guests will be able to get acquainted with many Egyptian things from different periods. I found interest in the facilities of the show time zone, the early 1900s for the Golden King Tutankhamun.

Following a well-told Coptic Cairo trip, you will be taken to the other part of Cairo, known as Old Cairo to view the earliest churches in Christianity. Dinner is taken at a restaurant before returning to your hotel or booking a night trip as the Nile cruise dinner in Cairo.
