WOW Dubai (Marina Cruise + Armani Dinner + Burj Khalifa 124)

The first stop will be Dubai Marina, from where you will set sail on a cruise short boat trip through the Dubai Marina. The man-made marina is the new hot spot of the city, where you can view the gleaming skyscrapers and the luxurious lifestyle of this city. Following an hour's cruise, we will head to the man-made island of Palm Jumeirah for a photo stop at the highly popular hotel, Atlantis the Palm. You can take some pictures outside the Atlantis Palm hotel.

Your journey through the city will be followed by a visit to the Souk Al Bahar market, is known for its traditional Arabic architectural style which makes it a popular tourist attraction and Souk Al Bahar is a market, where you can find various stores selling handicrafts, perfumes, antiques, and much more. On this tour, you will also have the opportunity to witness the largest fountain in the world. The Dubai Fountain is a highly choreographed fountain located in the man-made lake of the Burj Khalifa, near the Dubai Mall. You will then head to the Burj Khalifa, the tallest building in the world, to enjoy a delicious dinner at one of the Armani restaurants, which is a luxury restaurant located in the iconic Burj Khalifa.

On the top floor, the best way to end this tour is to visit the observation deck of the Burj Khalifa on the 124th floor, where you will have the best panoramic view of Downtown Dubai. Your guide will help you get tickets to the Burj Khalifa, and you can spend as much time as possible on the observation deck on your own. The transfer back to your hotel will be on your own, you can spend some more time at the world's largest shopping destination, the Dubai Mall, your one-stop shopping, leisure, and entertainment destination. With more than 1,200 stores of different brands, two department stores, and hundreds of food and beverage outlets. The mall is open until midnight and you can easily find a cab from the mall, cab services are available 24 hours a day in Dubai.
